THE PITCH

AZ Tamer is a lore-first, cinematic monster-taming RPG built as a custom WebGL experience. Players graduate the Tamer University of Aurel, pledge to a Grand House, and step into a world where the seal on a dimension of corrupted gods is thinning -- and the legends who sealed it have gone silent.

It is a love letter to classic creature-collecting, wrapped in a political thriller about erased records, buried empires, and a news network that writes tomorrow before it happens.

01 Graduate & Pledge

Pick a House, receive your starter Guardian, and earn your Guild Card.

02 Battle with Depth

SP economy, ten elements, status effects, and 3v3 tactics.

03 Befriend, Never Break

Gift berries, win trust, and build a party of true bonds.

04 Climb the Circuit

Rank up through sanctioned tournaments across four continents.

THE WORLD OF AUREL

~3,000 YEARS AGO

The First Dawn

The Veil to Ghandra thins for nine nights. Guardians walk into the world.

~700 YEARS AGO

Aurelia & the First Bond

A fisher-girl saves a storm-wounded Guardian on Agdao. Taming begins.

~400 YEARS AGO

The Guild Compact

Tamers outlaw forced bonds and chains. Every guildhall becomes a sanctuary.

15 YEARS AGO

The Legion War

Three friends seal nine corrupted generals in Ghandra. The seal weakens yearly.

NOW

You Graduate

The legends stop answering their radios. The Stormspire answers the dark.

w Olivar

Haven City, the five Grand Houses, and the University of Aurel.

w Veyra

Western sea-continent of a thousand harbors and drowned ruins.

E Tharkand

Red waste of dead war-engines; home to the Circuit-Crown Terra City.

s Noruun

Frozen south where auroras reflect Ghandra and ice Guardians sleep.

AGDAO ISLAND

"Aurelia pulled a storm-wounded Guardian from the surf and nursed it through a monsoon. The bond between them was the first of its kind: not a leash, but a promise kept both ways."

Seven hundred years later, the islanders still leave a fish on the north rocks every monsoon -- for Cero, the Surf-Light, the Guardian that started everything.

Agdao is where players first meet Greggy the Stormheart, retired to a windy bluff, guarding the old ways -- and the new silence.

I Circle of the First Fire

The oldest Guild in the world.
Never moved. Never broke the Compact.

THE BIG THREE

Nine Guardians against nine generals. The Legion stayed behind, sealed. These are the three best friends who walked into Ghandra and came back legends.

Aljay the Dawnflame

8-Time World Champion | Fire

Firgara · Onthrofa · Vulfenix

Introverted, wise, and quietly carrying the weight of the world. Father to Azrin and Azrael.
Husband to Mayor Airah. Now missing.

Greggy the Stormheart

9-Time World Champion | Electric

Raijura · Voltherion · Fulgrath

Gruff, weathered mentor retired to Agdao's bluff.
The first to notice the silence -- and the first to call it by name: Anomalies.

Onnel the Worldroot

5-Time World Champion | Nature

Verdalune · Gaiathorn · Nyxroot

Quiet center of the trio. Wove the seal that holds Ghandra shut. Their anchor-thread is part of the seal -- and it has gone still.

CHOOSE YOUR HOUSE

Every graduate pledges to one of the five Grand Houses of Olivar. Your House decides your starter Guardian, your Guild Card, and the family that has your back.

*Your starter carries a 2.025x stat bloom no wild Guardian gets.
It is your wall, your sword, and your reason the early dungeons are survivable.*

GAMEPLAY PILLARS

Bond, Never Break

Gift Sweet Berries to wild Guardians, win their trust, and fill your party. The Guild Compact forbids chains -- and so does the game's soul.

Battle with Depth

Strike to build SP, Guard to breathe, then cash in with Techniques. Ten elements multiply across every defender typing.

Build Your Crawler

Customize hull, engine, legs, cannon, scanner, and cargo. Upgrade with Mystic parts once wielded by legends.

Rise in Rank

Universal Rank moves only on Tournament Points earned in sanctioned brackets. Champions are made in the ring.

Live the Story

Every main quest plays out in a living 3D backdrop with directed cameras, character blocking, and atmospheric lighting.

Evolve & Fuse

Multi-stage evolution lines, Aether studies, and fusion Guardians. Your team is a living pedigree.

THE ROAD TO THE STORMHEART

Graduate. Pledge. Travel from Haven City to Agdao Island. Prove the diploma was deserved -- then discover the diploma was the easy part.

I Prologue

The graduation trial, the loaner Guardians, and Instructor Hale's first radio call.

II Mossdeep & Sunken Vault

Two dungeons teach the four economies: SP, elements, body, and Crawler.

III Thunderfen Mire

Farm Storm-Touched Amber for Historian Veyl and unlock the sea-chart to Agdao.

IV Stormspire Depths

The war-engine isn't counting down -- it's answering something inside Ghandra's seal.

"Silence the Stormspire, then report to Greggry. The door left ajar is where Act II begins."

SOMEBODY STARTED PRAYING AT THE DOOR

A terror-cult worships the nine corrupted Guardians of Ghandra as imprisoned gods. They call the Legion War "the Great Theft" and the seal "the Ninefold Insult."

They surfaced quietly -- defaced shrines, stolen relics, missing wardens -- until the night they stopped being quiet: the invasion of Hyujon, the Lantern of the North.

Their four Factions each worship a "choir" of the nine. The deadliest -- the Crownless Procession -- is led by the Veiled Cantor, whose voice sounds like a struck bell.

FD Choir of the False Dawn

Zealot-priests of counterfeit sunrise. Burn the unworthy, convert the rest.

SW The Stillwater Communion

Drowned-quiet infiltrators who call victims "the kept." Took Hyujon's harbor in one tide.

RT The Rootless

Saboteurs of soil and stone who starve cities into prayer.

CP The Crownless Procession

The head of the snake. Their project: walk the Hollow Crown out of Ghandra.

AN ISLAND THAT NEVER AGREED TO LAND

Turmal floats above the western sea, held aloft by no map and no explanation. Its Seasonal Tournament is the loudest open circuit outside the Grand Coliseum -- and its Sponsors' gold is three layers laundered.

Players enter not for glory, but for access. Behind the hospitality boxes waits a freight elevator not on any blueprint, and at the bottom: a Rip in space and time.

"They took the wrong sister. Coming, Rin."

-- Azrael's last note, pinned where Onnel's chair could see it

L Louie, the Gear-Man

Aljay's old Crawler mechanic. Kettle always on. Gives you the Mystic Dawnflame Manifold.

T The Seasonal

Bracket gauntlets, rival cameos, and Sponsor agents asking too-smooth questions.

v The Violet Garden

Azrin charges in alone. The Anomalies capture a daughter of the Dawnflame.

B The Breathing Forest Hideout

The Big Three's old camp. Azrael was here. So was Aljay.

THE RIP & FORETALES

THE RIP

A 300-year-old wound beneath Turmal, fed by caged Guardian sacrifices. The Sponsors and the Anomalies were never partners -- they were always the same thing.

The Old Empire did not drown in ambition. It was bled. The Reliquary Ledger proves it.

FORETALES

The four-continent news network doesn't report the world -- it drafts it. Ivan Lawrence was not their first deletion; he was a rehearsal.

STANDING DIRECTIVE

"GLAZE. DO NOT TOUCH.
NOT YET. SOON."

The only three names the machine is forbidden to touch:
the Dawnflame, the Stormheart, and the Worldroot.

CINEMATIC STORYTELLING

AZ Tamer does not play story over black screens. Every conversation happens inside a living 3D backdrop with its own lighting rig, camera shots, and character blocking.

A No Standing Statues

Actors idle, gesture, shift weight, and turn to face the current speaker.

B Handheld Sway

Every shot breathes with a subtle, continuous camera sway -- a real operator holding the lens.

C Glide Transitions

Camera moves lerp smoothly from wide shots to intimate close-ups.

D The Warm Camp

Flickering firelight, navy-to-star sky, and the sound of waves on Agdao.

E The Media Cathedral

Piercing shafts of white light, high-contrast shadows, spark-motes like camera flashes.

F The Bioluminescent Grotto

Violet ambient light, pulsing flowers, wet reflections on keel-stone.

WHY AZ TAMER STANDS OUT

Lore-First World

3,000 years of history, written into every dungeon, Guild, and family line.

Genre Fusion

Monster taming meets political thriller: erased records, puppet news networks, and cults older than empires.

Hand-Built Aesthetic

Custom WebGL engine, hand-sculpted voxel Guardians, procedural textures, and atmospheric lighting.

Emotional Core

A father's secret departure, a sister's desperate rescue, a mentor's buried fear, a champion's erased name.

Ethical Heart

The Compact is not window dressing: bond by choice, no chains, Guardians as friends -- never tools.

Built by a Visionary

A solo-dev epic with the scope of a saga and the soul of a world its creator wants players to believe in.

THE CHRONICLE AWAITS

Walk Well, Tamer.

AZ Tamer is more than a monster-taming RPG. It is a living world, a cinematic saga, and an invitation to become the kind of legend the next generation of Tamers will whisper about.
